Special Notices.

New-York, Sept. 15, 1852. To the Editor of The Tribune: DEAR SIR! Having been removed from the office of Cashier of the Chatham Bank, upon a charge of inattention to its business, those who are interested with me as stockholders of the Bank, demand that I should make public the charge in the peculiar form in which it was presented, together with my own denial of its truth, and my explanation of the real motives that prompted the action of the Board of Directors. By publishing the resolution of removal, and my letter, written upon the receipt of the resignation, this will be accomplished.

CHAS. FINK. written upon the receipt of the resolution requesting my

Very respectfully,

NEW-YORK, Sept. 7th, 1852.

E. G. Drake, Esq., President of the Chatham Bank.

Sir.: I have caimly considered the Resolutions of your Board of Directors, a certined copy of which you delivered to me on the first instant. They are in the following words:

to me on the first instant. They are in the following words:

"Kesolved, That in the opinion of this Board, the Cashier has ceased to feel that interest in the adars of this Board that its welfare required.

"Resolved, That Mr. Fink be requested to resign his situation as Cashier, and the President is hereby authorized to communicate the same to him."

The charge against me is, that I have ceased to feel the degree of interest in the Bank required by its welfare; and I have respectfully to say in answer, that this charge is as unjust as it is unfounded. I regret to add, that while I am not a febtor, I have a larger pecuniary interest in your Capital Stock than you have orever had, while you are a debor, without any actual security, far beyond all your shares, and but one of the Board of Directors has as much stock—unless recently acquired—as I have; and my immediate rehad block than you have or ever ind, while you are a debtor, without any actual security, far beyond all your shares; and but one of the Board of Directors has a much stock—unless recently acquired—as I have; and my immediate relations and persons if femore, original subscribers to the Capital, on my solicitation, are still among the largest stock-holders of the Institution, and desire to continue to be so. Thus I have an interest in the Bank which should inspire corresponding feelings. I was brought up, and have long been engaged in the husiness of Banking, but I cannot claim to have as much skill in conducting it successfully as you have acquired in similar treats without success, by a dear experience, purchased at the expense of your stockholders. But I may be permitted to say, that whatever interest I may leef in the welfare of the oank as a shareholder or officer. I have been at my peat of daty, since I was appointed Cashier of your Bank, every business day except here—two to attend the foneral of my deceased daugnter, and one on account of the dengerous sixhuess of my wife, and one on account of the dengerous sixhuess of my wife, and one on account of the dengerous sixhuess of my wife, and one on account of the dengerous sixhuess of my wife, and one on account of the dangerous sixhuess of my wife, and one on account of the dangerous sixhuess of my wife, and one on account of the dangerous sixhuess of my wife, and one on account of the dangerous sixhues of my wife, and one of the support of the security of a stockholder to favore the account of the security, and promptly.

True you sought on a former and early occasion to charge me with a breach of duty, in discounting, without authority, a suamess note, in your alsence, for some $1,900, for the benefit of a stockholder, for more than twice the amount; and also one or two small notes for individual Directors and procured a Committee to be appointed to accuse and reprove me, while a treadulation of your Board authorized every shareholder to have discounts q to must paroon me this transpess, for I like plain dealing, and the occasion demands it.

I am, Sir, faithfully yours,

At an adjourned meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chatham Bank, held at their Banking-Room on Monday,

P. M., Sept. 13, 1832,

The following Preamble and Resolutions were offered for the consideration of the Board, and after discussion, unanimously adopted.

And whereas, at the suggestion of the President, he was requested by the Board to communicate the substance of the Resolutions to the Cashier without presenting the same to him in the first instance, so as to give him an opportunity to resign, and that his resignation might appear to the public as a voluntary act on his part, and Whereas, The Board have been informed by the Fresident, that he discommunicate the substance of said Resolutions to Mr. Fink, who thereupon demanded his authority for making the communication; whereupon his President handed him a copy of the Resolution.

And whereas, Mr. Fink has not deemed it proper to communicate to the Board respecting the subject matter of the resolution, and has given out that he does not intend resigning; and although this Board have every confidence in his integrity and capability to perform the duties of the office—yet by his institution to his duties, and his naving become angued in matters ether than those appertaining to the business of the Bank, the Board are compelled, unpleasant as it, is to dissolve the connection existing between him and the Bank.

THE GUERILLA CHIEF; OR, THE ROMANCE OF WAR BY CAPTAIN GRANT.

This day published, illustrated.
This splendid work of fiction is calculated to obtain as wide a pepularity in this country as it already has done in England. It is a powerfully and truthfully written Picture of Warf in all its phases, and has received the unqualified indorsement of the whole English Press, as a work brilliant in its composition and never excelled in the absorbing interest which it awakend in the mind of the reader. From among numerous notices we select the following:

All the wind descriptions of the the sames of ear, and the arphile pictures of the solder's life, that fient such a charm to Leven's "Charles O'Malley," are equalled, and in a great many instances suppassed by the "Guerila Casef, or its Romance of War." There is more of the "wilsness" of war, (Iwe may no appress it, in which the romante desire, the ferre crusticy, and the reckless bravery of the bandit hief, are unraled in a thrilling manner with the achievements of the courageous and honorance solder. It is the minet in tensely interesting episode of war that we have ever read. [Critic, Price 50 cents.]
